What the Charter Is Costing.

For the past week or two certain parties of the city have been throwing conniption fits over the cost of publishing the city charter, and have persistently circulated the statement that the News had held the city up for $1,500. Of course if these parties had really desired to ascertain the truth of the matter they could easily have done so, but it seems that the truth is the very thing they did not want. It suited their purpose better to malign the whole plan of charter government and the News than it did to learn the facts of the case.

As a matter of fact, if the city paid for this publication at the rate it has paid the News for several years past, which rate, by the way, is lower than charged regular advertisers, the cost would be somewhere around that mark, but the truth is that the manager of the News never once intimated that such a sum would be demanded, the contract notwithstanding. The real cost will be somewhere between $250 and $300 and his includes three publications in both daily and weekly, necessitating the issuance of four extra pages each time. A similar amount would cost the regular advertisers of the paper $557, from which it can be seen that the city is getting off very light indeed.

MINE EXPLOSION KILLS SEVENTY-FIVE

Fort Smith, Ark., March 20.—With a mass of wreckage defying their efforts, a half a hundred men are to-night working in relays to rescue from sixty to one hundred miners imprisoned since early this morning by an explosion in mine No. 2 of the Sans Bois Coal company at McCurtain, Okla., thirty-seven miles west of Fort Smith.

At 8 o'clock Wednesday night thirteen men had escaped alive from the mine, five bodies had been recovered and fifteen more had been located. All hope for the entombed men has been abandoned and seventy-five coffins have been ordered shipped to the grief-stricken mine camp.

The Sans Bois Coal company issued a statement Wednesday afternoon to the effect that ninety men were at work at the time of the explosion. Other reports say more than one hundred men were at work at the time.

"The condition of the mine cannot be determined for several hours," reads the statement.

Wednesday night officials in charge of the government's mine rescue car which arrived from McAlester stated there was no hope for the entombed men. The same opinion was given by W. J. Bushnell, general manager of the Fort Smith and Western Railroad company, owners of the mine, who arrived here Wednesday night from the scene. He said thirty-five bodies had been located in the wreckage.

Eight men at work in the mule stables escaped through the passage used by the cars. A slight jar, followed by a cloud of smoke, told them of the disaster. Rescuers found five other miners badly injured lying in a wrecked entry. Three of these probably will die. What caused the explosion is not known. Either gas or coal dust, say the government mine experts, is responsible.

The body of John Golwas, aged 17 years, a trapper boy, was first recovered. It was frightfully burned.

The first rescue party entered the mine at noon. It was composed of A. Brown, superintendent of the mine, George Hutchinson and Ben Fairmond. This party was able to reach the sixth level, or a distance of 900 feet from the entrance. Wednesday night the rescuers were down to the eleventh level, but their passage is blocked by hundreds of tons of coal, earth and twisted timbers. Two of the five men taken from the mine Wednesday night are John and Frank Goff, brothers.

Milwaukee Strong Against Socialism.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 20.—Corrected returns from yesterday's primaries emphasize the determination of the people of Milwaukee to shake off Socialistic rule.

The Fusion ticket was successful everywhere in about the ratio of 2 to 1 and the dislike of Socialists went so far as to cause the defeat of one of the oldest Aldermen, because of his known socialistic sympathies, notwithstanding he was a candidate on the Fusion ticket.

The socialists claim they did not bring out their full strength, but this is not borne out by the returns, which indicate that the socialists cast every vote they could possibly muster and that the result means sure disaster for them at the election.

Will Investigate Live Stock Rates.

Hon. Geo. A. Henshaw of the Corporation commission will go to Chicago to attend a hearing before the Inter-state Commerce commission on the 25th. The question to come before the commission is the matter of reduction in live stock rates ordered by the commission last September, when a hearing of the matter was had at Oklahoma City. At that time it was established that the railroads had been discriminating against Oklahoma points in the matter of live stock rates and a general reduction was ordered. It now appears that the railroads have ignored the order of the commission, and a new hearing has been ordered for the 25th.

LA FOLLETTE WINS A GREAT VICTORY

CARRIES NORTH DAKOTA BY PLURALITY OF 15,000—TAFT
NOT IN IT.

Grand Forks, N. D., March 20.—Robert M. La Follette's majority will not be far from 15,000 when the final primary returns are received, and may be heavier. Of the total votes La Follette has polled about 32,000, while Roosevelt has polled about 18,000. The Taft vote in the state was about 3,000.

The trend of the vote throughout the state as indicated by the incoming returns today was interesting.

It is in the Western Congressional district that the greatest surprise was found. The entire northern part of the district, consisting of a group of eight counties, went to La Follette solidly, giving him a plurality of about 3,000. In the southern part of the district this lead was increased, according to the latest reports available from that district.

The vote is especially interesting on account of the varied claims which had been made concerning the urban vote.

It was the claim of the Roosevelt forces that the city vote would go to their candidate and that the country vote would be heavy for La Follette in the eastern section of the state, while in the western districts this situation would be reversed.

Of the forty-three cities and towns from which returns have been received, thirty-two went for La Follette and eleven for Roosevelt. Bismarck was the only large town which showed a Roosevelt majority. Grand Forks, Jamestown, Devil's Lake and Valley City went to La Follette by practically 2 to 1. The total vote for Taft in the forty-three towns and cities was 369.

Trail county, which in 1904 gave Roosevelt a majority of 1,400 on a vote of 1,800, yesterday returned a plurality for La Follette of 880, while Taft received but 27 votes out of the 1,520 cast.

With two precincts to hear from, it appears the La Follette majority in Griggs county will be 350. Griggs county in 1904 gave Roosevelt a majority of 450.

Democratic figures were an unknown quantity this morning, owing to the great interest which centered in the republican primaries. The name of Gov. John Burke was the only one appearing on the Democratic primary ballot.

MORGAN GIVES $100,000

TO SOUTHERN COLLEGE

Nashville, Tenn., March 21.—A new impetus was given the movement for an increased endowment for Peabody college for teachers Wednesday when announcement was made that J. Pierpont Morgan would give $100,000. The news comes in a letter from Mr. Morgan in Egypt to James E. Caldwell, a member of the board of trustees for the college. The trustees of the Geo. Peabody fund have agreed to give the college an additional $500,000 on condition that the college raise a million by September 1, 1913. Mr. Morgan's gift is to be a part of the million. Of the remainder the alumni in the south have undertaken to raise $200,000.

negligence, do not, as a rule, take measures to prevent permanent injury of the trees resulting from such improvement. All street improvements should be co-ordinated.

The street tree should be carefully trained, pruned and cared for. The individual, in front of whose lot trees are planted, is not the only one to receive benefit from them; they benefit the entire street and the citizens who pass along it. There is nothing that adds as much to the attractiveness of a city as well balanced street trees and we hope to see our Texas cities take advance steps to encourage greater planting of trees and better care after planting.—Houston Post.

Listen Friends,

I don't want you to read this unless you have confidence in my word. For two years I suffered from a sore on my shin caused by an ax cut. I tried a great many remedies with no results. At last I went to Gwin & Mays, they sold me a box of "Gwin & Mays' Shin Salve," and the second 25c box cured that sore absolutely. I trust that my experience may help other sufferers.

Yours very truly,

WHY not give your lad the same training?

3 "When I was a growing lad, and came upon many words in my reading that I did not understand, my mother, instead of giving me the definition when I applied to her, uniformly sent me to the dictionary to learn it, and in this way I gradually learned many things besides the meaning of the individual word in question—among other things, how to use a dictionary, and the great pleasure and advantage there might be in the use of the dictionary. Afterwards, when I went to the village school, my chief diversion, after lessons were learned and before they were recited, was in turning over the pages of the 'Unabridged' of those days. Now the most modern Unabridged—the NEW INTERNATIONAL—gives me a pleasure of the same sort. So far as my knowledge extends, it is at present the best of the one-volume dictionaries, and quite sufficient for all ordinary uses. Even those who possess the splendid dictionaries in several volumes will yet find it a great convenience to have this, which is so compact, so full, and so trustworthy as to leave, in most cases, little to be desired."—Albert S. Cook, Ph.D., LL.D., Professor of the English Language and Literature, Yale Univ. April 28, 1911.

The Scientific American is authority for the statement that out of 72,000 miles of public highways in Oklahoma only 400 miles are to be classed as first class roads. On the other hand Delaware with an area of less than 2,000 square miles, boasts of 3,000 miles of roads surfaced with stone gravel shells and sand-clay. "Children Who Labor" is the title of one of the pictures to be shown at the Majestic tonight. This shows the conditions existing in the factories of New England, mines of Pennsylvania and the cotton mills of the South. These pictures were taken by the National Child Labor committee, appointed by congress to investigate the child labor problem. It is a picture that should be seen by every one—man, woman and child. It shows at a glance more than can be told in volumes.

FOR SALE—Young sound team of horses, with or without harness and surry that has been used but a short time. Phone 494. R. C. Preston. 298-31

Origin of "Blackguard." Blackguard is said to come from a nickname applied to a group of boys always on hand to black the boots of the horse guards who guarded at St. James park, London, although Webster gives its probable origin as coming from the scullions, smutted from handling kitchen utensils. It now means a person of low character, especially one who indulges in scurrilous or abusive language.

Blames the Romans. A sartorial authority says that the custom of dressing for dinner began with the Romans. It was needless to say, a simpler procedure than at present. A loose robe of a fine material was donned for the evening meal, preferably at home, but in cases where guests came from a distance, at the home of the host, he kept a supply of dinner clothes on hand for the use of his guests who came unprovided.

Phillips on Matrimony. The late David Graham Phillips had like many bachelors, a cynical view of matrimony. Mr. Phillips, at a reunion of Princeton's class of '87, at the Princeton club, said of marriage: "The Persians have a proverb that every young man should consider well before proposing. It runs: 'He that ventureth on matrimony is like unto one who thrusteth his hand into a sack containing many thousands of serpents and one eel. Yet, if the prophet so will it, he may draw forth the eel.'"

A Syllogism. Marriage is a lottery. A lottery is illegal. Therefore marriage is illegal.—L. T. H., in Lippincott's

TASTE, SMELL AND HEARING GONE

Destroyed by Catarrh Can Be Quickly Restored by Using Ely's Cream Balm.

The thousands who suffer the miseries of colds and catarrh and claim they have never found a cure can get instant relief by simply anointing the nostrils with Ely's Cream Balm.

Unlike internal mixtures which upset the stomach, or strong snuffs which only aggravate the trouble, this cleansing, healing, antiseptic balm instantly reaches the seat of the trouble, stops the nasty discharge, clears the nose, head and throat and brings back the sense of taste, smell and hearing. More than this, it strengthens the weakened and diseased tissues, thus protecting you against a return of the trouble. This remedy will cure a cold in a day, and prevent its becoming chronic or resulting in catarrh.

Nasal catarrh is an inflammation of the membrane lining the air passages, and cannot be reached by mixtures taken into the stomach, nor can it be cured by snuffs and powders which only cause additional irritation. Don't waste time on them. Get a 50-cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist, and after using it for a day you will wish you had tried it sooner.

Mothers should give the children Ely's Cream Balm for colds and croup. It is perfectly harmless and pleasant to take. Special Agent—Gwin & Mays Drug Company.

Remember if you get 1500 lbs. of lump coal and 500 lbs. of slack for a ton you have really only 1500 lbs. of coal as the slack is worthless to you. We would not let you have slack if you wanted it as we need it for our boilers, so be sure and get our prices before you buy.

Revised Version.

Backward, turn backward, O Time in your flight,
And show us a woman that isn't a fright,
These terrible fashions lay all in the shade,
And disgrace the best thing that God ever made!

We're weary of looking at switch-and rats,
And hay-ricks and brush-heaps and
nests for the bats;
O give us some women who're willing to wear
Their own blessed home-grown and beautiful hair!

We used to write sonnets 'bout tresses
and curls,
That beautified heads of the beautiful
girls,
But now 'twould disgrace the delicate muse
To dhyne about jute-piles and Chinamen's queues!

When ladies go forth on the streets
parade,
They're wonderfully, fearfully, scare-fully made!
They have on a hobble that is twelve inches wide,
And look like a parrot that's shut up and tied!

With pitiful pig-steps they wobble along,
'Twould be most outrageous, if printed in song!
Turn backward, O Time, a vision unfold,
A maid that can walk like the women of old!

The hats are so tall they reach up to the skies,
And come down so low that you can't see their eyes,
Or spread out across the dominion so wide,
The beauties of nature they shamefully hide!

And when we assemble on Lord's day to pray,
This terrible head-gear is much in the way:
We can't see the preacher, the Bible,

FOR A NATION-WIDE "BULLET-PROOF REVOLVER LAW"

Springfield, Mass., March 21.—The United States Revolver Association, which provides the American teams in International Revolver Championship matches and which is now getting together a team to represent the United States in the Olympic contests next summer, has decided to take a hand in the revolver law legislation that is going on pretty much all over the country.

This announcement was made here by Mr. J. B. Crabtree, secretary-treasurer of the association. According to Mr. Crabtree, the decision of the Revolver association was made when it found that its efforts were hampered by revolver legislation to such an extent that in many cases its members, consisting of nearly all the crack shots in the country, were unable lawfully to carry their pistols between their homes and their revolver ranges. When interviewed, Secretary Crabtree said:

"Things have come to a pretty pass when law-abiding citizens that are experts in the handling of fire-arms, may not lawfully carry a target pistol from their homes to a shooting range, all because of a handful of crooks which the police are unable to handle.

"This feature, however, is merely what originally suggested our action. The danger lies in the experimental secret weapons legislation which is taking place pretty much all over the country. Many states, like Massachusetts, learned in time, what a fizzle New York state made by legislating so that it has become almost impossible for the law-abiding citizen to buy a revolver for legitimate home protection. Other states are enacting other experimental laws along different lines. The result is a mess of conflicting laws so absurd that even express messengers allowed to wear fire arms in one state are obliged to take these off and lock them up in closets as they cross the line into an adjoining state.

"For these reasons we have decided, through our 1500 members scattered throughout the country, to try to put a bullet-proof revolver law upon the statutes of every state.

"Experience in New York has shown that what we need to hold down the crook is a double-barreled revolver law—one that not only permits the legitimate self-protection of the law-abiding citizen, but one charged with a grape and canis er punishment for the crook found with concealed weapons.

"First of all, make it mandatory that punishment is inflicted for violation of your revolver law. Then, give us a law that provides that no man ever convicted of theft, burglary or other crime of violence, may carry a fire-arm or any other concealed weapon under pain of a ten-year state's prison sentence. Put that law on your statutes and the crook who arms himself, if caught, automatically sentences himself.

"For the law-abiding, make the law easy. Leave the respectable citizen unrestricted to procure weapons for house protection or to arm himself when necessary. Compel him to register his name and address and the number of his revolver when he buys and compel him to notify the police if for any reasons he transfers his weapon to another person. If he wants to carry an arm, compel him to obtain a license.

"Restrict him in any reasonable way you like, but don't take away the one weapon which may mean life to him."

Virginia Outlaws Still at Large.

Hillsville, Va., March 20.—A reinforced posse today surrounded another mountain stronghold at Chestnut Ridge in an attempt to capture the Allen clan.

It is believed today that the clansmen would long since have made their way west through the mountains but Sidna Allen, who is too badly wounded to undertake such a long journey.

All of Sidna Allen's properties, valued at about $30,000 has been seized by the officers. The wife of Allen came into Hillsville yesterday. She asked the prosecutor to exempt her husband's store from a attachment, but he refused. The property has been tied up for the heirs of Allen's victims.

More Bad Weather.

Yesterday many citizens of Ada were going about in their shir sleeves, but shortly before 8 o'clock the predicted blizzard blew up and since then rain and sleet have had the front of the stage. Sleet on the twenty-first day of March is something very much out of the ordinary for this section. Although the trees had begun to take on a greenish tinge during the few warm days and some fruit trees had begun blooming, the previous backwardness of the season had held back the fruit trees to an extent that makes it certain that the present cold snap will not do much damage.

Neat Window Display.

We note with much interest the way some of our enterprising local dealers are putting forth every effort this spring to make their stores attractive. This week Ramsey Drug Co. whose progressive policy has been strongly shown this spring by their large, attractive advertisements in our columns, have a fine window devoted entirely to house paint.

On close inspection one finds not only the usual display of paint cans but long cards showing rows of houses in new and handsome combinations of colors for exterior painting. An attractive window border brightens the appearance of the whole store and draws much attention from the passers-by. It attractively illustrates how easily and well any shabby surface in or about the house can be fixed up. Ramsey Drug Co. deserves much credit for this window and we are sure it will prove of much benefit in reminding people of the many things around their homes that can easily be beautified at house-cleaning time.

As the Lion is Monarch of the Forest, so S. S. S. is King of Blood Purifiers and Master over all Blood diseases.

Pure, rich blood and a free circulation is the surest prevention against the diseases and disorders which are constantly attacking our physical systems. Healthy blood stimulates the excretory members and enables them to filter out of the system everything that is not necessary or beneficial to the growth and development of the body. Thus we are apt to remain healthy unless there is a weakening of the vital fluid or an impure infection of the circulation.

Imperfect blood takes various forms in its outward manifestation. A weak, watery circulation denotes anaemia, with its attendant evils of pale, waxy complexions, malarial conditions, or perhaps some more definitely marked disorder is shown. Frequently the blood becomes infected with acid humors, and Eczema, Tetter, Acne, or some other skin affection makes its appearance, while an excess of uric acid in the circulation produces Rheumatism with its pains and aches. Old Sores and Ulcers are likewise dependent on bad blood, these places being kept open and in a state of irritation by the drainage of pollution which disordered blood constantly discharges into them.

Another common indication of weak, impure blood is the loss of appetite, tired, worn out feeling and a general run-down condition of the system. This is an ailment very prevalent in the Spring and most persons so afflicted realize the necessity of overcoming the trouble by the use of a tonic.

We recommend to all in need of a blood purifier or tonic, the use of S. S. S., a medicine which has proven itself the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes down into the circulation and removes all impurities, humors and poisons and makes the blood pure and health-sustaining. It purifies and strengthens weak deteriorated blood, supplies it with the healthful properties it needs and lays the foundation for good health. As a tonic S. S. S. has no equal and those who are beginning to feel the need of such a medicine to fortify themselves against the unpleasant conditions which come with Spring and early Summer, should commence its use at once. S. S. S., the King of Blood Purifiers, is a genuine blood cleanser, made entirely from roots, herbs and barks; it does not contain a particle of mineral in any form. You could not do better than begin the use of S. S. S. if from any cause your blood is weak or impure. S. S. S. cures all troubles due to a deranged circulation, and you will find it the most satisfactory tonic you ever used. Write for book on the blood and any medical advice. No charge for either.

Danger, Now on the Track!

When George Stephenson, the celebrated Scotch engineer, had completed his model of a locomotive, he appeared before a committee of the British parliament and asked the attention and support of that body. The grave M. P. looking sneeringly at the great mechanic's invention, asked:

"So you have made a carriage to run only by steam, have you?"

"Yes, my lords."

"And you expect your carriage to run on parallel rails, so that it can't get off, do you?"

"Yes, my lords."

"Well, now Mr. Stephenson, let us show you how absurd your claim is. Suppose when your carriage is running upon these rails at the rate of twenty or thirty miles an hour, if you are extravagant to even suppose such a thing is possible, a cow should get in its way. You can't turn out for her—what then?"

"Then 'twill be bad for the cow, my lords!"

There are few things so pathetic as the slow death of what was once a flourishing town. Year after year the process goes on, business falling off, property values decreasing, houses falling into decay and the people taking on an air of despondency or indifference. Of course many begin hunting better locations as soon as the first signs of decline appear, but others refuse to desert the sinking ship. The past appeals to them. They have been reared in the community and their interests center there. Hoping for a change in the downward course they cling to the old place with a desperation most touching and go down with it. In many sections of the older states one sees just such places that have become stranded and whose existence will soon be only a memory, but still there can be found a few old timers who cherish the memories of earlier and more prosperous days and mourn over the decadence of their favorite town. To them modern progress does not appeal as strongly as the days of the long ago.

Nancy A. Herrick, being duly sworn, deposes and says: When I was a girl I had a head of heavy, long, dark brown hair which was the envy of my friends and which attracted the attention and remarks of strangers, but as I grew older it commenced to come out. When my hair was quite thin and gray, I was induced by the many good reports I had heard of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to try a bottle; and you can imagine my satisfaction when I found my hair was fast coming back to its natural condition. I continued to use Sage and Sulphur until my hair was as heavy, dark and smooth as when I was a girl of sixteen. It is now four years since I began using Sage and Sulphur and my hair is in splendid condition.
